Several staff members were recognized for the month of September by their supervisors and principals for their positive attitudes, dedication and other qualities that stood out to their administrator. Dan Traxler from Farmers Insurance attended the meeting and presented Lisa Stoneham with a certificate for “Teacher of the Month” and a gift card. He will be making a presentation each month.

The FFA gave a presentation about upcoming events for the 2016-17 school year and some of the things they have done over the summer. They attended the Washington Leadership Conference in Washington DC and learned a lot about our nation’s capital.

The Senior Class presented their trip request for November 11, 2016 to Cleveland, Ohio. They have many events planned for the day including Whirly Ball, Mongolian BBQ, West Side Market, The Happy Moose and a Lake Erie Monsters Game. The students are very excited about going.

Transfinder and Gateway gave presentations for bus routing software, GPS software that worked together and had apps available for parents to know where the bus is and when it is coming. There were camera systems for the busses as part of the presentation as well.

District Leadership Reports

Nate Richards, Elementary Principal, reported that all of their MAP testing was completed, Jodi Chaffee was working with students K-3 in a music program and that he and written a grant for books through a literacy grant offered through Dollar General and had received $2,000.00 that will be used for guided reading books.

Alicia McKee, Middle School Principal, reported that the 7th and 8th grade students will be going to Washington DC, May 17, 18, and 19, 2017. Students will go on the trip every other year and the opposite years the students will go to Cedar Point. Mrs. McKee gave Mr. Gaither praise for the fabulous Parade of Bands Show over the weekend. The show was outstanding and many community and school members attended.

T.J. Hellickson, High School Principal, thanked Bryan Hamman for his 15 years of service to the South Central District. Update on the Addams Family High School Musical coming November 4th and 5th, tickets will be going on sale in October. New hot water tanks were installed in the bathrooms on the track along with a fresh coat of paint.

Board Roundtable Discussion

New Bus Bid information was discussed. A 72-passenger bus would cost the district approximately $82,000 that is without the lettering that would need done. The board would like to have further discussion on the topic.
